

WAR NEWS.

Re-organization of the Army of the Potomac—Probably Attack on Burnside by the Rebels—A Fight Near New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, 15th. Brigadier General Augur, from New York, was today appointed Major General of Volunteers.

Lieut. Commanding Haxton, of the U. S. steamer Connecticut, reports to the Navy Department that, on the afternoon of the 8th of October, he captured the English schooner Henrosa, or Nassau, about fifteen miles eastward of the Sabine river, and close to the land. She was put under charge of a crew, and despatched to Key West.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. The following General Order has been issued respecting the observance of the Sabbath day in the Army and Navy:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, D. C., November 16, 1865.

The President, Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, desires and enjoins the orderly observance of the Sabbath by the officers and men in the military and naval services. The importance for manly of the prescribed weekly rest, the sacred rights of Christian soldiers and sailors, a becoming observance to the best sentiment of a Christian people, and a due regard for the Divine Will, demand that Sunday labour in the army and navy be reduced to the measure of strict necessity. The discipline and character of the national forces should not suffer, nor the cause they defend be imperilled by the profanation of the day or name of Most High. "At this time of public distress," adopting the words of Washington in 1776, "men may find enough to do in the service of God and their country, without abandoning themselves to vice and immorality." The first General order issued by the Father of his Country after the Declaration of Independence indicates the spirit in which our institutions were founded and should ever be defended. The General hopes and trusts that every officer and man will endeavor to live and act as becomes Christian soldiers, defending the rights and privileges of his country.

(Signed) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, 15th. Gen. Wadsworth is to have a command in the army.

The Navy Department dispatches contain an account of valuable services rendered by Acting Master James J. Russell of the bark Restless. He left Baltimore on the 5th instant, in a small boat, with two contrabands, for Jersey's Landing, Palmetto river, S. C., for the purpose of intercepting the mail between Charleston and Georgetown. He and his companions secreted themselves, and waited for the carrier, who approached in a sulk. Suddenly issuing from his concealment, Russell commanded the mail carrier to halt by the authority of the United States government. Two mail bags were secured. The carrier said he was glad to be captured, as he had long been wishing for an opportunity to escape.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, much annoyed at the receipt of letters from assistant assessors, deputy collectors, and others, asking for information connected with the business of their offices, it is hereby announced that no attention can be given to their inquiries, as applications for information concerning their business should be made by subordinate officials to their principals, and not to the Internal Revenue Bureau.

WASHINGTON, 15th. The schooner Rachel Saanen, on the 6th ult., captured off Sabine Pass the English schooner Dart.

The steamer Kensington recently captured the English schooner Adventurer, attempting to run the blockade off the coast of Texas.

NEW YORK, 15th. A Washington letter to the Post says: Major Washburn of the Massachusetts 14th regiment who was dismissed from the army for alleged pecuniaries, is likely to be reinstated. The court that found him guilty on technicalities has petitioned for his restoration to the service, and General McClellan also opposed the finding of the court without an examination. He has, through Col. Key, written a letter asking for a re-examination of the case, or such action as will relieve Major Washburn of the charge of fraudulent intent.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Near Warrenton Va., 14th. General Order No. 184.

1st. The organization of a portion of the army into three grand divisions, is hereby announced. These grand divisions will be formed and commanded as follows:

The 2d and 9th corps will form the right grand division, and will be commanded by Maj. General E. V. Sumner.

The 1st and 6th corps will form the left grand division, and will be commanded by Maj. Gen. Joseph Hooker.

The 11th corps, with such other troops as may hereafter be assigned to it, will constitute a reserve force under the command of Major General Sigel.

Assignments of cavalry and further details will be announced in future orders.

2d. In accordance with instructions from the Department, the commanders of these Grand Divisions will have powers to decide such questions, as relate to the interior management of their commands, and forward them to these headquarters for final action. Major General Sigel will exercise all the powers in respect to his command above assigned, as the commanders of the divisions.

3d. The cases which can be fully decided by the Department at Washington, they will forward directly to that department, without reference to these headquarters. All matters relating to the movement of troops, &c., will be forwarded to headquarters, as usual. The commanders of the Grand Divisions will return with them their respective staffs.

4th. The senior officers of the 2d, 3d, 5th and 6th corps will take the command of their corps and will forward to these headquarters a list of recommendations of officers to fill their staffs.

5th—Brigadier General Williams, A. A. G., is appointed Inspector General of the Adjutant General's Department of the army.

6th—Lieutenant Colonel J. S. Hardin, aid-de-camp, Acting Assistant Adjutant General, will act as assistant Inspector General in the same department.

The heads of these various staff departments at these headquarters, other than the Adjutant General and his deputy will remain, as heretofore, until further orders.

7th—Lieut. Col. Louis Richmond, A. A. G., is announced as Adjutant General at these headquarters.

8th—All orders conflicting with these are hereby repealed.

By command of
MAJOR GENERAL BURNSIDE,
S. WILLIAMS, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Sigel visited General Burnside at his headquarters today.

NEW YORK, 16th. A special despatch from Washington says that military men firmly believe that General Burnside will soon be attacked by the rebels in force.

A letter says that Capt. Samuel M. Quincy of the 21st Mass. Regiment, Henry Holloway of the 6th Conn., and Arthur E. Jordan of the 10th Me. are prisoners at Stanton, Va.

A Newbern correspondent of The Herald's states that the rebel Governor Vance replies to Gov. Stanley's proposition that North Carolina will fight to the last drop of her blood, and recommends Gov. Stanley to treat directly with rebel Government.

A Newbern letter states that the night previous. The attack was expected, and the most complete preparations had been made by Colonel Kurtz. The iron clad railroad car, with its two guns loaded with grape and canister, were brought to bear on the rebels, repulsing them successfully.

Caruth's and Thompson's batteries.—Our loss was 18 killed and 74 wounded. General Weitzel says all of his command did well, officers and men.

The rebels captured were paroled.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Aquia Under Marching Orders—General Sumner's Command Advancing—Couch and Reynolds Threaten the Enemy on the Rappahannock—The Army Approaching Fredericksburg—The Rebels Fleeing back to the Rappahannock—Rumors of Disaster at Harper's Ferry.

Fort Monroe, 16th. A rumor has reached Yorktown that two thousand rebels are at Gloucester Court House, twelve miles above Gloucester Point. An expedition was consequently sent over from Yorktown yesterday to ascertain the strength of the rebel force. The expedition is commanded by Col. Davis, and consists of infantry, cavalry and artillery.

A brisk north-east storm has prevailed here during the day.

WASHINGTON, 17th. The Star contains the following information:

The firing heard on Saturday morning occurred between Warrenton Springs and Fayetteville, and was an artillery duel between the rebels and a Pennsylvania battery.

The casualties on our side were three men wounded.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Office of Internal Revenue,
Washington, Nov. 17th.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is prepared to supply the following stamps in quantities sufficient for the use of the people in the District of Columbia and of the States east of the Rocky Mountains, viz:

Playing cards, proprietary, express, telegraph, insurance, life and marine, postage tickets and protest.

The use of the stamps herein specified is hereby required in the District and States above described on and after the 1st day of December next, and persons wilfully neglecting using such stamps will be subject to the penalty provided in the law.

(Signed) G. S. BOWEN, Com'r.

The Killwell was this morning searched by order of Col. Foster, and the Leonardstown stage seized. About five hundred dollars worth of medicine and a large rebel mail were captured, implicating many parties in this District. The mail carriers were caught.

It is said that Aquia Creek has been held for some days by the Yankees, Satellite and other gunboats lying off there, and the place has been evacuated by the rebels.

Twenty-eight men engaged by parties in Maryland as substitutes, at $2000 apiece, were taken from the city this morning.

ST. LOUIS, 17th. Gen. Herran of the frontier army, General Steele and Gen. Harney, are among the recent arrivals at the Planter's House. Important movements and counter movements on foot, are discussed in military circles.

Gen. S. Davidson and Herran leave soon for their respective commands.

NEW YORK, 18th. A special despatch to a morning paper states that a number of prominent ship merchants are now in Washington urging upon the Secretary of War and Navy the importance of sailing up Charleston harbor, at present the great port of entry for all contraband trade, and the harbor out of which it out of any rebel port iron clad vessels are expected to issue which may threaten the safety of our northern cities.

They also urge that the very first of our iron clads which are ready for sea may be sent on service to the fleet under command of Admiral Dupont.

A Warrenton letter of the 13th states that the Army of the Potomac is again under marching orders.

Gen. Sumner, now commanding two large corps, is this morning on route for an important point which it will take two or three days to reach.

The rebels of this village, in order to conceal themselves upon seeing this great host march through their streets, are circulating reports that Jackson has fallen from his mountain heights upon our rear, and we are rapidly fleeing from him.

It is queer that two corps should fly from one, and in the direction of Richmond. All that Jackson can now get, in our rear he is welcome to have.

Lee will soon require the service of Jackson in front, if he has not already been ordered to join the main body of the rebels.

A letter from Sulphur Springs states that the two Mass. officers captured by rebels, while enjoying a dinner to which they had been invited by seceding females, are Lieut. Col. Carruth and Adjutant Nathl. Wales of the 35th Regiment.

Notwithstanding their ineffectual house and property are still guarded by our troops.

NEW YORK, 18th. Commodore Van Bruin has been ordered to report to Gen. Banks.

A Warrenton letter of the 16th, to The Times, says Gen. Burnside has broken up his headquarters preparatory to marching.

The advance, consisting of Couch's and Reynolds's corps, are already threatening the enemy on the line of the Rappahannock, toward Fairfax and Gordonsville.

Our flank and rear, which the enemy would fain make us believe he is intending to attack, are well covered by Gen. Sigel.

The Times, Washington despatch says the recent unbroken presence here of Mrs. Lee, whose husband was on Gen. Scott's staff, and who is now Inspector in the rebel army, and Mrs. Campbell, wife of ex-Judge Campbell, Assistant Secretary of War for the rebel Government, and their unimpeded return to Richmond have provoked much comment.

Many people cannot see why female spies are thus permitted to visit the capital of the country, and after obtaining whatever information is accessible, be allowed to return at pleasure through our lines to Richmond, laden with their valuable freightage.

It has been determined to replace the army supply wagons to a considerable extent, with packed mules for the transportation of stores for the army.

The army of the Potomac is now and has been for two days on the march down the valley of the Rappahannock towards Fredericksburg, from which place it is proposed now conduct the pilgrimage towards the Jerusalem of our crusade.—That Fredericksburg possesses unusual advantages as a base of operations against Richmond, is so apparent, that we are compelled to wonder why it was not originally chosen.

An Immediate Attack on Charleston expected—No more delay to be Tolerated—The whole Army in Motion.

NEW YORK, 18th. A special despatch from Washington to the Post says it is believed that an attack on Charleston, S. C., will not be long postponed, and one or more iron-clads will participate.

The rebels are making great preparations to defend it. The proposed attack seems to suit the wishes of both the army and navy, and it is considered just the reasonable city that should be destroyed.

No delay will be made by the Navy department in attacking rebel cities, on account of any foreign news received.

The Department has decided that all substitutes for drafted men will be compelled to join old regiments. The Washington correspondent of the Post, writing under date of yesterday, states the whole army is in motion to Fredericksburg.

Senator Wilson left the headquarters of the army last evening, and rode up, in the night. He had an interview with the President this morning in reference to army movements.

Special despatch to the Journal.

WARRENTON, VA., Nov. 17, 1862. All the sick and wounded of the army of the Potomac have been sent to Washington.

The army is in fine condition for a rapid movement toward the heart of the Confederacy.

Gen. Burnside was here last night and was heartily received by the Eleventh and Sixteenth Massachusetts regiments, at present on duty here.

Senator Wilson is here on a visit to the Massachusetts regiments.

The main body of the rebels is near Gordonsville.

From Burnside's Command—"All quiet Along the Potomac"—Forewarners of a Battle—Advance of Shoulder Straps on Washington—From New Orleans—An Abolitionist Tarred and Feathered.

NEW YORK, 18th. The steamer Eina, from Liverpool, has arrived. News anticipated.

The Times Washington despatch says up to 9 o'clock this evening intelligence at the headquarters of the army runs to this effect: "All quiet along the front."

Rumors prevail of an engagement between our rear column and the enemy, but diligent inquiry fails to corroborate the reports, which are believed to be groundless.

The telegraph wire between Alexandria and Bull Run was cut on Friday last about five miles North of Bull Run Creek.

Washington is again effected with an irruption of shoulder straps; the halls of the hotels and sidewalks of the avenue are crowded with officers in uniform, very much after the olden fashion just before or immediately after the occurrence of a battle. Many augur from this a speedy conflict of hostile armies now facing each other between Washington and Richmond.

Charles A. Dana has been appointed Assistant Secretary of War in place of Mr. Wolcott resigned.

The Herald's Washington despatch says we learn that the whole army again took up the line of march on Saturday and Sunday for Fredericksburg.

Warrenton was evacuated to-day. Gen. Burnside's headquarters were at Catlett's Station to-day, and are this reaches you the whole army will be near Fredericksburg. A large quantity of supplies have been sent there, and a force of contrabands and mechanics under General Hunt for building wharves and railroads at Aquia Creek.

Letters from different army corps state that they are all on the move.

A despatch from headquarters dated 16th says:—

Headquarters struck tents this morning and moved at 9 o'clock. Our destination is in the direction of Fredericksburg.

NEW YORK, 19th. A Norfolk letter says the work of raising the sunken war vessels of the government is rapidly and successfully progressing. A few days since the frigate United States was raised, pumped out and towed to Gosport Navy Yard by the contractor, Thos. P. Wells of Boston. A large force of divers and machinery are now employed on the work, and preparations are making to raise the sloop-of-war Cumberland and frigate Congress.

NEW YORK, 19th. The steamer Potomac from New Orleans 7th, has arrived.

The frigate Hartford and gunboat Richmond have arrived at New Orleans.

Theship John Henry of Bath has been run ashore on the southwest pass, to prevent sinking.

A man named Ellis, keeper of a race track had been tarred and feathered on up his headquarters preparatory to marching.

The advance, consisting of Couch's and Reynolds's corps, are already threatening the enemy on the line of the Rappahannock, toward Fairfax and Gordonsville.

Our flank and rear, which the enemy would fain make us believe he is intending to attack, are well covered by Gen. Sigel.

The Times, Washington despatch says the recent unbroken presence here of Mrs. Lee, whose husband was on Gen. Scott's staff, and who is now Inspector in the rebel army, and Mrs. Campbell, wife of ex-Judge Campbell, Assistant Secretary of War for the rebel Government, and their unimpeded return to Richmond have provoked much comment.

It has been determined to replace the army supply wagons to a considerable extent, with packed mules for the transportation of stores for the army.

The pretence of being an abolitionist.—Several arrests have been made.

Parties who committed the robbery of $100,000 worth of property have been arrested and most of the property recovered.

Thirty-seven cases were before the pro-voct court on the 7th. Lieut. Wm. Greene formerly of the Boston Press is holding the court.
